> Summary of IOPC conclusions

A summary of our conclusions and our rationale is set out below.

> Metropolitan Police Service – Death or Serious injury investigation

We found no indication that any person serving with the police may have committed a criminal offence or behaved in a manner that would justify the bringing of disciplinary proceedings.

> Performance

The investigation report sets out the actions taken by the Metropolitan Police Service towards Mr Sudesh Amman and his death on Sunday 2 February 2020.

We considered:

- (i) whether or not the performance of any person serving with the police was unsatisfactory; and
- (ii) what actions, (if any) it proposes to take in respect of their performance

In our opinion the Metropolitan Police Service is not required to make those determinations because we are satisfied that the report does not raise any performance issues.

> Learning

We carefully considered whether there were any learning opportunities arising from the investigation. We make learning recommendations to improve policing and public confidence in the police complaints system and to prevent a recurrence of similar incidents. In this case, we have not identified any organisational learning.
